We know the Messiah came to establish the Kingdom of God among us, but that kingdom will take time in order to develop, so that the full realization of that kingdom, the realization of the kingdom of peace, of joy, of one family under God, the full realization of God's work in this world, will come at another time.

And we hope it will come soon, and yet no-one knows when it will come.

And so our joy is a kind of a joyful hope. It makes us understand that this world is full of meaning and purpose as it moves faithfully, carefully, and sometimes skipping a bit here and there, but it is moving towards the unity of all mankind and the full realization of God's triumphant love for all things.
