In today's Gospel, Jesus, sends his disciples, by themselves, into the villages and towns where he himself had preached before. This is the only way the word of God will reach the ends of the earth is through, not Jesus, but through men and women who take their lives seriously and who live their lives seriously, because this is the way, by their work and their prayer and their commitment, that the word of God is spread, and spreads out through the whole world and from generation to generation.
