Jesus wants to us to handover to him our labors and burdens and he will replace them with his rest. The word “rest” that Jesus uses does not only mean a pause or an end to our labors and burdens, but it also means a refreshment, a renewal of our strength. When we upload our worries and cares to God, he downloads them and then refreshes us, re-strengthens us to carry on with life. This is the rest that we receive at every Mass in Holy Communion. When we receive the Body and Blood of Christ at Mass, we are strengthened with spiritual energy to help us live our Christian calling the more.
